

COOL KID

ARE YOU READY FOR ANOTHER KID?
TAKE OUR QUIZ AT COOKIEMAG.COM

dressing

photography by GRANT CORNETT

Left: Calvin cardigan, $120, Little Marc Jacobs, marcjacobs.com for stores. Mix It Up T-shirt, $25, LittleMissMatched, littlemissmatched.com. Dark blue & navy jeans, $20, H&M, hm.com for stores. Chuck Taylor All Star low-top sneakers, $25, Converse, shoes.com. Center: Disco Kitty vest, $43, Baby Phat

Girlz, macys.com. Camela satin skirt, $125, Little Marc Jacobs, marcjacobs.com for stores. Mini Striking shoes, $299, Acne Mini, acne studios.com. Right: SF graphic polo, $44, Puma/Ferrari, macys.com for stores. Mini Flaunt skirt, $175, Acne Mini, acnestudios.com. Black sneakers, $17, Old Navy, oldnavy.com.

mix to the max

Color-drenched, genre-blending dressing is back.

It's as if they were getting ready to shoot a music video circa 1989, or auditioning for The Breakfast Club: The Next Generation. This (mini) motley crew makes the dance-inspired street fashion of our past—preppy meets punk, graphics mixed with graffiti, ballet tutus with high-tops, and sparkles galore—feel fresh, sweet, and easy to wear anywhere, whether they're jamming in the studio, wreaking havoc on the playground, or slipping into this year's school daze.